

Somethin' Special

Christina Cunningham and Manyale

Live Jazz · Soul · R&B

Somethin' Special brings Christina Cunningham and Manyale together in a live vocal-and-keyboard setting. The supplied performance photograph captures Christina at the microphone with Manyale at the keys.

Christina's vocal style blends timeless soul with contemporary R&B, inspired by the elegance of Anita Baker and Nancy Wilson.

Somethin' Special on Facebook

Booking inquiries — official website

The live experience

Christina Cunningham — vocals

Christina's selected performances include Middle C Jazz with Tony Exum Jr., Clay Center with Bob Thompson, and the Jazz Legacy Foundation Afterparty with Hank Bilal and JT Thompson. These are Christina's individual artist credits, not claims of duo appearances.

Manyale — keyboards

Timothy Manyale Courts is the artist behind Manyale — a soulful fusion of jazz, R&B and urban groove. Known for expressive keyboard work and smooth, emotionally rich arrangements, Timothy brings heart and depth to every performance, in the studio and live.

His latest release, On Courts Street, blends classic jazz textures with modern flair.

Somethin' Special in November

Christina Cunningham & Manyale · November 2026

Thursday, November 5 · Kaye's Elite · 8-10 PM

Thursday, November 19 · Kaye's Elite · 8-10 PM

Friday, November 20 · The Wine Down · 6-8 PM

Saturday, November 28 · The ROQ · 8-11 PM

Bookings & press

Send a booking inquiry

Somethin' Special — Facebook

Christina Cunningham — individual artist EPK

On Courts Street — Timothy Manyale Courts

Download original performance photograph

Photo supplied by Christina Cunningham. No face alteration or retouching. Dates are taken from the supplied November event advertisement; check with the venue for the latest availability.

UPCOMING PERFORMANCE

Saturday, November 28

The ROQ · 8-11 PM

Download original event poster